Methamphetamine Dealer Sentenced to 85 Years

(April 4) On July 20, 2016 the Kerrville Police Department's Special Crimes Unit with the assistance of several surrounding agencies arrested Edward Lloyd Hughes 09/21/1980 and charged him with Manufacture and Delivery of a Controlled Substance.

This was the largest drug supplier to Kerr County that the Kerrville Police Department has encountered to date. Hughes confessed to distributing a pound of Methamphetamine a day in Kerrville.

On March 30, 2017 Hughes was sentenced to eighty five (85) years in prison by the 216th District Judge, Keith Williams.

The Kerrville Police Department would like to thank the agencies that assisted in the apprehension and investigation of Edward Lloyd Hughes.
