morning of cowboy poetry and music with local historian Clifton Fifer on Saturday, April 10 at 10:30 a.m. in the library meeting room.

Fifer is a retired Kerrville school teacher and fourth-generation Texan who brings history to life via storytelling, poetry, music and dance. The public is encouraged to attend the event and learn about the cowboy through poetry and music. The event is free of charge, but registration is required.

Registration is currently open and may be made online at www.kerrvilletx.gov or by calling the library reference desk at (830) 258-1274.

For more information, contact the library reference desk or visit the city's webpage at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
