Applications available for Kerrville City Council

Kerrville, Texas (Jan. 3, 2022) – The City of Kerrville announces candidate application packets are available for persons interested in running on the May 7, 2022 ballot for a place on the Kerrville City Council. A candidate application packet for a place on the ballot can be picked up in the city secretary's office at city hall, 701 Main St., Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The first day for filing an application is Jan. 19, 2022, and the last day to file is Feb. 18, 2022 at 5 p.m.

Candidate packets are now available for persons interested in being a candidate for Mayor, Councilmember Place Three, or Councilmember Place Four. In accordance with the city charter, any person who is a registered voter of the city and lawfully qualifies may file an application for a place on the ballot for the May 7, 2022 election for city council. (Qualifications are listed in the Texas Election Code and the Kerrville City Charter.) Candidates are elected and new elected members assume office without party or partisan mark or designation, elected at large, and serve a two-year term. The candidate's name and place for which he /she is filing must be affixed by the city secretary at the time of issuance of the application and petition. Such application must include a filing fee of $100; however, the filing fee will be waived where the petition includes the signatures of not less than 100 qualified and registered voters of the city.

Bill Blackburn currently holds the position of Mayor, Judy Eychner currently holds the position of Councilmember Place Three, and Brenda Hughes currently holds the position of Councilmember Place Four.

For information regarding the city election, contact the city secretary's office at (830) 258-1118.
