Robin Monroe officially files as candidate for the Place 4 Councilmember on the Kerrville City Council

Kerrville, Texas (Feb. 18, 2022) – On Feb. 18, 2022, City Secretary Shelley McElhannon announced that Robin Monroe has officially filed as a candidate for the Office of Councilmember Place 4 on the Kerrville City Council. Monroe's application has been verified for eligibility and found to be sufficient; therefore, Robin Monroe is an official candidate for the Office of Place 4 on the Kerrville City Council at the May 7, 2022 municipal election.

In accordance with the City Charter, any person who lawfully qualifies and is a registered voter of the City of Kerrville may file an application for a place on the ballot.

Councilmembers are elected at large and serve two year terms; qualifications as stated in the Texas Election Code and the Kerrville City Charter are listed on the city's website: www.kerrvilletx.gov.

Brenda Hughes is the current incumbent for Councilmember Place Four.

For information regarding the city election or to file an application, please contact City Secretary Shelley McElhannon at (830) 258-1117.
