1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

1A. Mr. Piszczor moved for approval of January 2023 KRCC minutes and Mr. Duprie seconded. Approved unanimously.

2. OPEN MEETINGS ACT

2A. Chief reminded the group that the Open Meetings Act information was sent out to the coalition by e-mail. The group had no questions.

3. RECOGNIZE PARTNERS AND GUESTS

3A. The above listed visitors introduced themselves and were recognized and welcomed by the committee.

4. SACADA RURAL COMMUNITIES' OPIOID RESPONSE TEAM UPDATE

4A. Andrea introduced Phil Taylor, Prevention Coordinator. The Team is working on building capacity to create sustainability. Discussion also occurred on options for law enforcement agencies and how they can refer people they encounter who may be in need of their services.

5. BEHAVIORAL HEALTH ADVISORY TEAM UPDATE

5A. Chief provided an update on the behavioral health advisory team and also brought up whether a shared resource guide would be a possibility. Deanna volunteered to compare the two existing resource guides and determine whether a new layout could accommodate a combined/shared resource guide.

6. RESOURCE GUIDE – UPDATES – COMMUNITY NEEDS

6A. Chief Maloney produced a box of available resource guides to distribute and several members took bundles for dissemination. Discussion about the cost of printing new guides vs. a business card model with the website and QR code is still in the works. Mr Duprie reported he spoke to the local radio station about running a PSA and reported the radio station was more than willing to run the spot for as long as the RCC wanted. He stated a working draft would be available for the next scheduled meeting.
