“SECTION ONE. City Council hereby creates the Kerrville Main Street Advisory Board of the City of Kerrville, Texas (“Board”), which shall consist of seven (7) members at-large. In addition, a member of the Historic Downtown Business Alliance (HDBA) and a board of director of the Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone Number One, City of Kerrville (TIRZ No. 1), each to be appointed by their respective boards, shall be ex officio members of the Board, without voting privileges, and shall act in an advisory capacity to the Board. Four (4) Mmembers must be property or business owners within the designated Main Street boundaries, also known as Reinvestment Zone Number One, City of Kerrville, Texas, collectively referred to herein as the “Main Street Area”, and which is more specifically described in Exhibit A of this Resolution, and must reside within Kerr County. The remaining three

(3) at-large members must likewise have a vested interest in the Main Street Area and/or in the City's Main Street Program such that they were previously business or property owners in the Main Street Area; have or previously had other types of property ownerships, such as leases, in the Main Street Area; are realtors or property managers, each of which serve the Main Street Area. The sufficiency of a person's vested interest shall be solely determined by Council. In addition, a property or business owner may submit the name of a representative to be considered for appointment to the Board. However, such representative must be associated with the respective property or business, which sufficiency shall be solely determined by Council. For example, the representative may be a tenant of the owner or a manager of the business. Where such relationship ceases to exist, any such representative appointed to the Board shall have immediately resigned his or her position on the Board. Each member shall be a voting member and is subject to a two-year term; provided, however, that at the Board's initial meeting to recreate the Board, the members shall draw lots to establish the duration of the initial terms, with three members serving an initial term of one year and the remaining four members serving a full, two-year term. The expiration date of all terms shall be August 31 of each year. The initial one-year terms would therefore expire August 31, 2020; and the terms of the remaining four members to expire August 31, 2021."
