Sign up to give back to the community at Family Fright Night

Kerrville, Texas (Aug. 30, 2023) – Looking for ways to give back to the community? The Kerrville Parks and Recreation Department is inviting local businesses and organizations to set up a booth at their annual “Family Fright Night” Halloween event on Oct. 31. The free event will take place in Louise Hays Park, 202 Thompson Dr., starting at 5:30 p.m., and will include games, trick-or-treating, food trucks, a costume contest, games and more.

“Family Fright Night provides a safe and fun way for our community to enjoy Halloween,” Recreation Manager Rosa Ledesma said. “It’s also a great way for local businesses and organizations to interact with our community. This event could not be possible without the community’s support.”

Organizations/businesses can support this community event by registering to decorate a car trunk or 10’ x 10’ canopy tent (must provide your own tent) to create a booth with a family-friendly Halloween theme and distribute candy/prizes to trick-or-treaters. Be sure to include an activity or game for a little added fun. Register by completing the online form here:

<https://forms.gle/s5aQeJCP1a5frxT66>. Completed booth entries must be submitted by Oct. 20 to be guaranteed a spot at the event.
