Kerrville Eclipse Festival event schedule presented by James Avery

Kerrville, Texas (March 28, 2024) – The Kerrville Parks and Recreation Department is grateful to announce James Avery Artisan Jewelry as the presenting sponsor for the Kerrville Eclipse Festival happening on April 8. This free eclipse event will take place from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in one of Kerrville's treasured city parks, Louise Hays Park.

Event Schedule

Kerrville Eclipse Festival guests are encouraged to stay for the “totality” of the event to help alleviate the anticipated traffic congestion post-totality. Alternative folk band, Judah & the Lion, will play right after totality to keep the crowd engaged. In addition, there will be exciting things in store, like food trucks, amazing product vendors, DJ, boat rentals (ex: kayak canoe), crafts, and other activities for all ages. Here's a glance at the event schedule:

- 8:00 a.m. – Grounds open

- 10:00 a.m. – Welcome remarks from Mayor Judy Eychner
- 10:15 a.m. – Solar Salutation Yoga Class
- 10:30 a.m. – Photo-op with Astronaut Reid Wiseman at NASA Stage
- 12:00 p.m. – Speaker: Astronomy.com Writer Michael Bakich
- 12:45 p.m. – Speaker: NASA Astronaut Reid Wiseman
- 1:10 p.m. – Speaker: NASA Chief Scientist Dr. Kate Calvin
- 1:32 p.m. – Totality
- 1:40 p.m. – Judah & the Lion
- 3:30 p.m. – AM Project DJs

Event Parking

Limited, free event parking for the Kerrville Eclipse Festival will be available on a first-come-first-serve basis in the parking garage at 201 Clay St. in Downtown Kerrville. The parking lot at the Butt Holdsworth Memorial Library, 505 Water St., will have limited, free first-come-first-serve accessible only parking spots available to the public. You must have a state-issued person with disabilities plate or placard to park in an accessible parking space. More information on parking options at privately owned businesses and organizations can be found on www.kerrvilleeclipse.com.

The City of Kerrville would like to give a special thank you to James Avery Artisan Jewelry, Camp Verde General Store, Lennar, Hill Country Telephone Cooperative (HCTC), Toss It

Dumpsters, the CE Group, and Ranch Radio for their generous support of the Kerrville Eclipse Festival.
