1. APPROVE MINUTES

Dale Trees motioned to approve the minutes of the March 2, 2024 minutes. Phil Taylor seconded the motion. Approved unanimously.

2. RECOGNIZE PARTNERS AND GUESTS

The Coalition recognized Abby Filyaw, of HCCADA, and Brian Branson, of Starlite, as guests.

3. SACADA RURAL COMMUNITIES' OPIOD RESPONSE TEAM

Phil Taylor shared that SACADA has been solidifying and deepening with the community as well as connecting and fine-tuning partnerships. There have been meetings with stakeholders regarding the data collection. Phil Taylor has been facilitating stigma reduction and naloxone trainings.

4. HCCADA UPDATE

Phil Taylor had Abby share the update. HCCADA will be attending the Belong Resource Fair at the Calvary Temple Church and will have a table at the State Hospital's Shatter the Stigma 5K run. HCADA is also working on facilitating naloxone trainings in sober living homes as well.

5. BEHAVIORAL HEALTH ADVISORY UPDATE

There is no update due to the meeting being cancelled.

6. WARRANTS CLINIC PLANNING DISCUSSION

Dale Trees has connected with a municipal judge regarding the warrants clinic. The goal is to connect individuals in need of this to work with the judge to assist with drug court any way possible.

7. KRCC 2024 ANNUAL WORK PLAN UPDATE and COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

7A. Online Suggestion Submission – This online suggestion submission is connected to the KRCC email. It has been discussed and approved to have the KRCC email distribute the submissions to all members.

7B. 2024 INOR (International Night of Remembrance) – The sub-committee met to discuss INOR and discussed the possible venue of Louis Hay's Park. The members discussed how the KRCC members could reserve the amphitheater. The Chief provided details, and Brian Branson volunteered to make the reservation. The next INOR sub-committee meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 13th at Francisco's for lunch.

7C. "Reverse Job Fair" – It was agreed that this section would be tabled, and Community Events would replace it as the feedback for the reverse job fair was unfavorable from the community.

7D. Discussion/Planning for Next Stakeholder Feedback Session – This was tabled until next session.

8. UPCOMING EVENTS

Christa and Kaitlyn shared that they would be resigning from the coalition due to personal reasons. The Chief explained the process of what was needed for their resignation to go into effect.
