Library to host gardening program, Author Talk on Saturday

Kerrville, Texas (Nov. 6, 2024) – Come join the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library Saturday, Nov. 9 at 10:30 a.m. in the library's meeting room for a discussion on insects by Master Gardener Ray Tiemann. He'll help with that gardening question, "Is this insect helpful or harmful among my vegetables?"

During this program we'll take a brief look at insects in general and then discover the most common garden pests and ways to control them. We'll also look at good insects and their importance in the garden's ecosystem. This class includes demonstrations, discussion and take-home instructions.

Later in the day, local Christian author Alan Williams will be the guest speaker for Author Talk at 2 p.m. in the first-floor meeting room. Williams will read an excerpt from his first young adult novel “Captain Comet and the Intergalactic Patrol”, a science fiction story of a crew in space overcoming multiple challenges through teamwork and relying on their faith.

Following the reading, Williams will answer questions from the audience.

Both programs are free and open to the public.
