Celebrate the anniversary of the eclipse with $1 merchandise

Kerrville, Texas (April 1, 2025) – In celebration of the one-year anniversary of the historic total solar eclipse that captivated Kerrville, the Kerrville Parks and Recreation is excited to offer a special discount on all eclipse merchandise. Starting today, April 1, all remaining eclipse-themed items will be available for just $1, while supplies last. This discount is only applicable to in-person sales.

On April 8, 2025, one year will have passed since the awe-inspiring eclipse swept across Kerrville, attracting over 64,000 people to Kerr County. Among these visitors, more than 20,000 attendees enjoyed the Kerrville Eclipse Festival held in Louise Hays Park.

This is your exclusive chance to own a piece of the eclipse experience at an unbeatable price. Available merchandise includes posters, stickers, and postcards featuring the award-winning artwork by Dr. Tyler Nordgren, the celebrated artist and astronomer who designed the official artwork for the eclipse event. These vibrant, high-quality items serve as lasting mementos of the historic occasion.

The merchandise can be purchased at the Parks and Recreation Office in Kerrville-Schreiner Park, seven days a week, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Don't miss out – quantities are limited.

For additional information, contact the Parks and Recreation Department at (830) 257-7300, recreation@kerrvilletx.gov, visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov, or follow us on Facebook at City of Kerrville Parks and Recreation Department or Instagram at cityofkerrville.
