“Drive-In at the Library” set for Saturday

Kerrville, Texas (Sept. 15, 2021) – All ages are invited to the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library located at 505 Water St. on Saturday, Sept. 18 to build a cardboard car for the “Drive-In at the Library” event. After the car-building session, children will have the opportunity to watch a major feature-length movie from inside their new vehicle while enjoying car-side snacks.

Registration is required for the car-building portion of this event. All basic materials, including large boxes, glue, markers and crayons, will be provided, although families are encouraged to bring decorative items to personalize their child’s project. The building session will begin at 1 p.m. with the movie following at 2 p.m. Families may also bring their own cardboard car!

To register or request more information, please visit the library’s reference desk or call (830) 258-1274.
