Kerrville (February 14, 2013) – Come to the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library and join millions of children across the country in celebrating the Sixteenth Annual National Education Association's Read Across America Day on Friday, March 1, 2013. Read Across America Day, which celebrates Dr. Seuss's birthday and the joys of reading, expects more than 45 million readers, both young and old, to pick up a book and read.

The celebration at the library will begin with the Dr. Seuss Story time on Wednesday, February 27, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. Books that will be read are Green Eggs and Ham and My Many Colored Days by Dr. Seuss, and two books that have won the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award for 2013. There will be groovy songs to sing and the activities will include making a "My Many Colored Day" rainbow streamer and "Green Eggs and Bacon" candy treats.

From February 27th through March 2nd, any child who reads at the library or checks out a book will get a Cat in the Hat sticker, bookmark, and a Read Across America certificate.
