Get Crafty at the Library

Kerrville, Texas (January 8, 2014) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library is excited to announce a new programming series, “Get Crafty at the Library.” Beginning in January, the Library will host a craft session on the 3rd Thursday of every other month at 4:00 p.m. in the Teen Room. “The library is a space where the community can explore all types of do-it-yourself projects, from knitting mittens to building a deck, through our print and online resources,” said Laura Bechtel, Library Director.

The first project, to be held on January 16, 2014, will be “DIY Fashion: Creating a T-Shirt Scarf.” Participants will learn how to create a no-sew t-shirt scarf. Just bring a t-shirt (old or new) and the library will provide the supplies and the how-to! The craft sessions will be geared toward teens and adults. There is no cost to participate, but registration will be required. Registration will open one week before the craft session, will be limited to 15 participants and will be accepted in person at the Reference Desk, via phone at 830.258.1274, or via e-mail to library.webmaster@kerrvilletx.gov.
