With celebrity judges Howie Mandel, Mel B, Heidi Klum and Howard Stern, along with host Nick Cannon, America's Got Talent remained the #1 summer show in total viewers for a ninth year in a row. For the first time in the show's history, America chose a magician as their favorite act - season 9 winner Mat Franco who recently headlined the "America's Got Talent Live" stage show in Las Vegas.

Providing a completely open playing field, "America's Got Talent" is the only show where acts of any age and any talent can compete in front of a nationwide audience.

"We are really excited to kick off season 10 in some of the most incredible cities in the nation and can't wait to see what this year brings," said Executive Producer Jason Raff. "Celebrating a decade of talent, this next round of auditions is destined to bring us acts unlike anything we've seen before."

America's Got Talent is produced by FremantleMedia North America and Syco Entertainment. Simon Cowell, Sam Donnelly, Jason Raff, Trish Kinane and Richard Wallace are the executive producers.
