Recognition of Melissa Southern and John Hagerla for preserving the Historical Integrity of The Depot

Kerrville, Texas (May 13, 2015) – At the May 12, 2015 Kerrville City Council meeting, Mayor Pratt recognized Melissa Southern and John Hagerla for their instrumental involvement in preserving the historical integrity of The Depot building. The Kerrville Train Depot was rebuilt in 1915 and has had a long and varied history since the trains. In conjunction with National Historical Preservation Month, Rails – A Cafè at the Depot is proud to celebrate the 100th anniversary of this wonderful building throughout the month of May. Linda and Mark Stone restored the property and Melissa and her husband John are the proprietors of Rails – A Cafè at the Depot.
