Listed below is the schedule for the week of November 23rd through the 28th as well as information on the collection event.

Thanksgiving Week

Yard Waste Collections – Republic will not collect yard waste on Thanksgiving Day. Residents who are scheduled to have yard waste collected on Thursday will have theirs collected on Friday. Although not anticipated, collections may carry over into Saturday. Keep in mind the general rule for yard waste placement, which requires residents to place yard waste out no later than 7:30 a.m. of your collection day. Republic Services will be collecting yard waste all week, and will make every effort to collect yard waste on scheduled days. If your yard waste is not collected on the scheduled day, please allow a few days for collections to be completed. Recycling Collections – Residents who are scheduled to have recycling collected on Friday, November 27th, will have their recycling carts serviced on Saturday, November 28th.
