Go on a Valentine's Blind Date at the Library

Kerrville, Texas (Feb. 12, 2018) – Valentine's Day is here and love is in the air at the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library. To celebrate, the library staff are once again ready to set patrons up on a blind date... with a book. Each book will be wrapped, with only a "personal ad" to entice the potential reader.

"The goal of the Blind Date with a Book program is to help match readers with authors and genres they might pass over when browsing for something to read," Library Director Laura Bechtel said.

The Blind Date with a Book display will be unveiled on Wednesday, Feb. 14. To participate, patrons will:

- Browse the personal ads attached to each book and select their reading match.
- Check the book out and wait to unwrap it at home.
- Read it and enjoy! Spend at least a few minutes with the date.

- Fill out the attached “Rate Your Date” form and drop it in the comments box next to the book display.

And if the date doesn’t create any sparks, just return the book – its feelings will not be hurt! The Blind Date display will run through the first weekend of March.

For additional information, contact the Reference Desk at (830) 258-1274 or visit the city’s website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
