Beal Recognized as Officer of the Year at City Council Meeting

Kerrville, Texas (Feb. 15, 2018) - At Tuesday night's City Council meeting, Kerrville Police Chief David Knight introduced KPD Officer of the Year Austin Beal. Beal is a three-year veteran of the force currently assigned to field operations. In addition to his everyday duties, Beal is an active participant in the mentoring program at Nimitz Elementary School, where he provides guidance and support and serves as a positive role model for at-risk youth.

“Officer Beal’s interaction with the citizens we serve promotes a positive impression of law enforcement, effectively bolstering the legitimacy of our service to our citizens,” Chief Knight said. “He consistently performs his duties with professional excellence, and brings great credit to him and the Kerrville Police Department daily.”
