Kerrville Farmers Market to Meet Every Friday Through October

Kerrville, Texas (April 2, 2018) – Beginning this Friday, April 6, the Kerrville Farmers Market will meet every Friday, April through October, from 4 p.m. until dark at its new location - the historic A.C. Schreiner house at 529 Water St. next door to the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library. Free parking is available in the three-story city parking garage across the street.

The Kerrville Farmers Market features a wide variety of locally sourced produce, meat, eggs, bread, cheese, beer, wine and more! Brick oven pizza and boiled shrimp are on the menu. Tunes from acoustic instruments will make their way into the air as you sip wine or enjoy a taste of Kerrville made beer, feast on locally produced food and celebrate an evening with old friends and make some new ones. Come on out and meet your farmers every Friday afternoon!

For additional information, contact the Parks and Recreation Department at (830) 257-7300 or visit www.kerrvilletx.gov.
