New Book Club to Form at the Kerr Regional History Center

Kerrville (May 11, 2018) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library is excited to announce the formation of the “Talking Texas Book Club” at the Kerr Regional History Center, located at 425 Water St. The Talking Texas Book Club will be an “open” club, allowing those interested to attend as often as they choose. The books discussed will include a mixture of topics related to Texas and the Hill Country, including both fiction and non-fiction titles.

The book club kicks off Thursday, May 24 at 11:30 a.m. at the History Center. Individuals interested in participating in the book club are encouraged to attend the first meeting to discuss the reading list and other details. The first book discussion will be held on Thursday, June 28 on “The Captured: A True Story of Abduction by Indians on the Texas Frontier” by Scott Zesch.

Patrons may place a request for the book in person, by phone at (830) 258-1274, or on the library website at <http://libraryweb.kerrvilletx.gov>.

Future meetings will be held on the fourth Thursday of the month at 11:30 a.m. in the History Center.

For more information, contact the library's reference desk at (830) 258-1274 or visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
