Pull Into the “Drive-In at the Library” at BHML

Kerrville, Texas (Aug. 30, 2019) – All ages are invited to the Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library located at 505 Water St. on Saturday, Sept. 21 to build a cardboard car for the “Drive-In at the Library” event. After the car-building session, children will have the opportunity to watch a major, feature-length, movie from inside their new vehicle while enjoying car side snacks.

Registration is required for the car-building portion of this event and will open Saturday, Sept. 7. All basic materials, including large boxes, glue, markers and crayons, will be provided, although families are encouraged to bring decorative items to personalize their child’s project. The building session will begin at 1 p.m. with the movie beginning at 2 p.m. Families may also bring their own cardboard car!

Everyone is welcome to the movie showing. Snacks will be provided and families are welcome to bring a capped drink. To register or request further information, please visit the library reference desk, call (830) 258-1274, or visit the library at www.bhmlibrary.org to sign-up.
