Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library to resume curbside checkout; Library to remain restricted to the public

Kerrville, Texas (April 23, 2020) – The Butt-Holdsworth Memorial Library will resume curbside checkout Monday, April 27 at 10 a.m. Curbside checkout will be available Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m. Patrons may place reserves on items online, by phone at (830) 258-1274, by email at circ.bhmlibrary@kerrvilletx.gov, or by text at (830) 215-0640. After receiving notification that items are ready for pickup, drive to the library and park in one of the four parking spots marked for curbside delivery. Follow the directions on the sign and staff will run the checked-out items to your vehicle. Library staff ask that patrons with items to return continue to utilize the book drops located at the front of the library and at City Hall.

Don't forget the digital collection is open 24/7! Patrons can find e-books and e-audiobooks, digital magazines and more at www.bhmlibrary.org. If you need assistance in using the digital resources, library staff will be available to provide telephone assistance Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., at (830) 258-1274, or via email at library.webmaster@kerrvilletx.gov. Members of the community may register or renew a card remotely via the online registration form found at www.bhmlibrary.org.

For more information, contact the library reference desk at (830) 258-1274, or visit the city's website at www.kerrvilletx.gov.
